

International Seminar Report on Society, Literature and Culture

Organized by: The Department of Bengali, Milli Al-Ameen College (For Girls)

Date: 8th May, 2023

Location: Milli Al-Ameen College (For Girls), Auditorium

Overview:

The International Seminar on “Society, Literature and Culture” organized by the Department of Bengali, Milli Al-Ameen College (For Girls) was held with the aim of interdisciplinary field that explores how societies shape and are shaped by literature, arts, and cultural practices. It involves understanding how literature reflects societal values, conflicts, and histories while also contributing to cultural development. The way literature and culture have been influenced by global interactions, colonialism and cross-cultural exchanges. The event brought together esteemed GB Member, Honorable Guest, Principal, teachers, scholars, speaker and students to delve into the entire session was well informative.

Overall impact:

Such a seminar would not only deepen understanding of the dynamic interplay between society, literature and culture but would also encourage participants to think critically about how literary and cultural works influence social attitudes, historical consciousness and future cultural developments. It could lead to greater appreciation of the diversity in literature and culture while fostering interdisciplinary dialogue across sociology, literary studies, history, and cultural studies. Literature has been a powerful tool for social critique and reform. Seminar Participants might discuss the role of literature in advancing causes like civil rights, feminism and environmentalism. The seminar could delve into how global interactions have led to hybrid cultures and the exchange of literary traditions while also addressing concerns like cultural appropriation.

Yours Sincerely

Iltut Yeasmin

Department of Bengali (Guest Lecturer)

Milli Al-Ameen College (For Girls)

