

Students Seminar Report on Women and Education

Organized by: The Department of Bengali, Milli Al-Ameen College (For Girls)

Date: 2nd August, 2024

Location: Milli Al-Ameen College (For Girls), Auditorium

Overview:

The Students Seminar on “Women and Education” organized by the Department of Bengali, Milli Al-Ameen College (For Girls) was held focused on the critical importance of education in the empowerment of women. It aimed to explore the challenges women face in accessing education, discuss the progress made over the years, and identify strategies for improving educational opportunities for women globally. The event brought together Principal, teachers, speaker and students to delve into the entire session was well informative.

Keynotes Speakers:

Sarthak Laha, Doctoral Fellow of women’s Studies Jadavpur University. He emphasized how the fight for women’s education has been long and challenging, but it remains crucial for achieving gender equality and societal development. This session explored the many obstacles preventing girls and women from accessing education.

Conclusion and Recommendations:

This session emphasized how education serves as a powerful tool for women’s empowerment. It improves women’s participation in decision-making processes. The Seminar highlighted the undeniable impact of education women on both individual lives and broader society. Education not only enables women to achieve economic and social independence but also has a profound influence on the health, well-being and prosperity of entire communities.

Overall impact:

The organizers expressed their gratitude to the speakers, participants for their valuable contributions to the success of the seminar. The seminar focused on discussion the role of education in women's empowerment and how it leads to economic independence and social equality.

Yours Sincerely

Dr. Pavel Sultana

Department of Bengali (GL)

Milli Al-Ameen College (for Girls)

