

A Report on National Constitution Day
Celebrated in Collaboration with IQAC
Jointly organized by the Departments of Political Science and History
26. 11. 2024

Milli Al-Ameen College (for Girls) celebrated the Constitution Day on 26 November, 2024 to create awareness on the Indian Constitution. A program was organized at the college Virtual room by the Departments of Political Science and History in collaboration with IQAC. The programme commenced with the recitation of a verse from the Holy Quran followed by the reading of the Preamble and several Poster Presentations by the students on the important aspects of our Constitution. The significance of the day was given by the programme anchors Zarrin Sattar Department of Political Science and Dr. Rimpa Ghosh, HOD, Department of History. A fitting tribute was paid to the father of the Indian Constitution, Dr B R Ambedkar, by Zarrin Sattar, faculty member, Department of Political Science. Zarrin Sattar, faculty member of Department of Political Science made the students understand the making of the Constitution.

The Guest speaker of the day was Dr. Karan Vora, Assistant Professor of Political science, who enlightened the students about the interpretation of various articles in the Indian constitution and its relevance in the present time.

The programme culminated with a sense of patriotism and an awareness to abide by the Constitution of our Nation.

