

Poster Inauguration on International Women's Day

Date: 10th of March 2025

Venue: Corridor

On March 10th 2025, The History department of Milli Al Ameen College (For Girls) hosted a poster Inauguration event in the corridor to commemorate International Women's Day. This significant day honors the women suffrage movement and the struggle for women's rights serving as a global celebration of women's contribution and a reflection on the continued pursuit of equality. The students showcased posters highlighting the achievements of women's from Ancient to Post modern times, acknowledging their social, economic, cultural, and political impact.

