

ORIENTATION DAY PROGRAMME 2025

Date: 6.8.2025

Time: 12 noon

Venue: Virtual Room, Milli Al-Ameen College (for Girls)

Objective of the Programme: To facilitate a smooth transition of newly admitted students into a new environment by providing essential information and fostering a sense of belonging.

Description of the Programme:

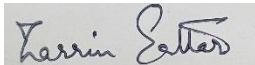

Milli Al-Ameen College (for Girls) organized an orientation programme for the first-semester students of the session 2025-2026 on 6th August 2025 at the Virtual Room. The programme commenced with the recitation of a verse from the Holy Quran and its English translation by second-semester students, Sadiqua Tasneem and Alifia Amin. The Admission Sub-Committee convener, Zarrin Sattar, faculty member of the Department of Political Science, delivered the inaugural speech, highlighting the steadfast commitment of the institution to creating a supportive learning environment for the students. She emphasised the importance of the programme, which aimed to ease the transition of incoming students into their new academic environment, fostering a sense of belonging and empowerment right from the start.

The welcome address was delivered by the Principal of the College, Dr. Sunanda Haldar. The institution's code of conduct, disciplinary policies, and academic integrity standards were explained by her to ensure a clear understanding among the new students. She introduced the faculty and non-teaching staff, who briefly interacted with the students. This was followed by a PPT presentation by the IQAC coordinator, Dr. Debika Banerjee. The informative and engaging presentation provided an overview of the course structure, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities of different Committees, Cells, and Clubs, as well as the various facilities on the campus. The students were made aware of the various support services available.

The introductory session concluded with the handing over of the proceedings to the Students' Representative, Ramsha Asraf Ansari who interacted with the new students. Later, the student volunteers guided them to their respective allotted classrooms for Department Orientation, where they were briefed about the syllabus and the daily routine.

This was followed by a campus tour to familiarise the new students with the physical layout of the College.

Outcome of the Programme: The orientation programme successfully achieved its objectives of welcoming new students, providing essential information, fostering a sense of community, and preparing students for their academic journey. The programme set a positive tone for the start of the academic year and contributed to the overall satisfaction and integration of new students into the institution's culture.
