Date: 19th August 2024

Event: International Youth Day Celebration

Organized by: NSS Unit 1 in Collaboration with the Department of Islamic History and Culture and the Department of Political Science

Venue: Virtual Room, Milli Al-Ameen College (for Girls)

Time: 12:30 PM

On 19th August 2024, Milli Al-Ameen College (for Girls) observed International Youth Day with great enthusiasm and purpose. The event was organized by NSS Unit 1 in collaboration with the Department of Islamic History and Culture and the Department of Political Science. The program took place in the Virtual Room of the college and commenced at 12:30 PM.

The celebration began with an energetic and insightful lecture delivered by Dr. Samhita Sen from the Department of Islamic History and Culture. Dr. Sen's presentation, supported by a PowerPoint, emphasized the critical role of youth in society and highlighted their responsibilities in shaping a better future. Her lecture was both motivating and informative, inspiring students to recognize their potential and duties towards the community.

Following Dr. Sen's presentation, a lively and engaging interactive session was conducted by the teachers from the Department of Political Science. This session provided a platform for students to share their personal experiences and thoughts. The interaction between students and teachers was dynamic, with students actively responding to the questions posed by the teachers. This exchange of ideas made the session particularly effective and enriching for the participants.

The program concluded with the students taking a pledge to raise their voices against any form of wrongdoing. This pledge symbolized their commitment to standing up for justice and contributing positively to society. Overall, the International Youth Day celebration at Milli Al-Ameen College was a resounding success. It not only educated and empowered the students but also reinforced their role as active and responsible members of society.
