

Report on Orientation Programme in association with NSS

Date: 2nd September 2024

Organized by: NSS Unit 1

Venue: Milli Al-Ameen College (for Girls)

On 2nd September 2024, NSS Unit 1 of Milli Al-Ameen College (for Girls) conducted an Orientation Programme to introduce newly admitted students to the cell's objectives and activities. The session began with an introduction by Jemima Nasrin, the Program Officer of NSS, who outlined the mission and operations of the unit. She emphasized the vital role of an NSS Volunteer, detailing their duties and responsibilities while highlighting the importance of NSS in shaping personality and character development.

During the session, Jemima Nasrin elaborated on how NSS contributes to the holistic growth of students by fostering a sense of social responsibility and community service. She encouraged the new students to actively participate in various NSS activities that promote leadership skills, teamwork, and a commitment to societal well-being.

Following the presentation, the NSS Volunteers set up a registration desk for new enrollments. The event witnessed an overwhelming response, with 63 new students enthusiastically joining as Volunteers. The NSS Cell warmly welcomed the new members and took a collective pledge to serve society with dedication and compassion.

The Orientation Programme concluded with a sense of excitement and a shared commitment among the new Volunteers to uphold the values of NSS and contribute meaningfully to the community.
