

Report on ‘Cloud Kitchen’ workshop

Date: 03.03.2024

Time: 12:30 pm

Venue: Virtual Room

Organized by: Incubation Cell, Milli Al Ameen College for Girls

Speaker: Alifia Rehman

Incubation centre of Milli Al-Ameen College (For Girls) in collaboration with IQAC organized a workshop on ‘Cloud Kitchen’ on 13th March 2024 in the virtual room for the students of the college. Alifia Rehman, the proprietor of a cloud kitchen, named “Darjeeling Momos” was invited as a resource person for this class. She gave a detailed overview of the entire process of starting cloud kitchen and running it.

The resource person taught the students how to leverage their culinary skills to pursue this type of entrepreneurship and work from home. This would help them to be financially independent, support their families even while taking care of the later. She discusses online registrations for food delivery apps such as Swiggy and Zomato, as well as the costs associated with food delivery via food apps. The resource person enthused and encouraged the students to pursue job possibilities that can be handled from home and utilise their existing skills. Students from different subjects participated in the workshop. The students took interest in the workshop and learned about the career orientated skill. The event was graced by the presence of principal Dr. Sunanda Haldar and many other teachers. The workshop was a success due to the enthusiastic participation of the students and teachers.
